

APPLICATION GUIDELINES

The strategic research area Climate and energy transition welcomes applications for travel support for 2024 from students that plan to attend conferences, summer schools and workshops. The call is aimed at master's and PhD students who write theses addressing topics related to climate and energy transition. You may use Norwegian or English for your application.

Award criteria:

- Master's students are given priority over PhD students.
- The Master's or PhD thesis must address a topic related to climate and energy transition.
- Up to NOK 12,000 in support is awarded per student.
- A short summary, online report or similar must be made after the trip. This must be shared with the strategic committee within 2 weeks after the trip is finished. The report and travel bill must be submitted and approved before the travel allowance is paid.
- The money must be spent by the end of 2024.

Application description:

- The application description must be a maximum of 2,000 characters (incl. spaces). Application descriptions that are longer or where some of the questions below are unanswered will be rejected on formal grounds.
- The application must contain the following information:
 - The program for the conference/meeting/summer school the student want to attend (can be an attachment)
 - The student's role at the conference/meeting/summer school
 - Academic relevance for climate and energy transition
 - Travel time
 - Budget for the trip - including VAT
 - Confirmation from the supervisor that he/she supports the application
 - Reporting to the professional community: Summary, online report, video or similar

APPLICATION DEADLINE 16 FEBRUARY AT 12:00, NOTIFICATION IN WEEK 11.

- The application is sent to kristin.froysa@uib.no with cc to kristine.spildo@uib.no .
- The applications are assessed based on the application quality and professional relevance. We welcome applications from all faculties at UiB.
- The evaluation group consists of Nils Anfinset, Frans Jacobi and Vidar Remi Jensen with Kristin Guldbrandsen Frøysa as administrative support. The evaluation group is appointed by the initiative's steering committee.
- You may send questions related to the call to kristin.froysa@uib.no with cc to Kristine.spildo@uib.no

THE APPLICATION DESCRIPTION

The application description must be a maximum of 2,000 characters (incl. spaces and the questions).

Application descriptions that are longer, or where some of the questions below are unanswered, will be rejected on formal grounds.

The following questions must be answered:

- The program for the conference/meeting the student will attend (can be attached as an attachment)
- The student's role at the conference/meeting/summer school
- Academic relevance for climate and energy transition
- Time of travel
- Budget for the trip - including VAT
- Confirmation from the supervisor that he/she supports the application
- Plan for reporting to the student's research community: Summary, web report, video or similar